John 11:25

I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die.

1 Corinthians 13:1-8

If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal.

If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.

Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.

It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

Love never fails.

Jean Scheldrup Heckelmann, age 90, passed from this life to heaven on April 17, 2020, in Colorado Springs, Colorado. She was married for 65 years to Walter H. Heckelmann.

Jean was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota, on September 2, 1929, to Carl J. and Annie Moren Scheldrup of Geneva, Illinois. She graduated from Austin High School (Chicago) and graduated from Augustana College (Rock Island, Illinois).

Jean and Walt married on July 31, 1954, in El Paso, Texas, and with their family lived in numerous cities including Barrington, Illinois; Wichita, Kansas; Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Houston, Texas; Evergreen, Colorado; and finally, Colorado, Springs. Through Walt’s work and church, they shared a mutual love of travel which took them throughout the world.

Jean was a woman of faith who expressed loving care for her family and friends through her warm smile, hugs and her gift of hospitality. She enjoyed cooking for others and hosting community events and is especially remembered by her grandchildren for her cinnamon toast and warm hugs. In her later years, she would encourage people through prayer, and tell them they were wonderful, special and loved by God. She strongly believed in the blessings received through God’s grace.

Jean was a lifelong volunteer, serving terms as president for the Women’s Association of the Wichita Symphony, the Wichita Art Museum and Wichita Historical Museum, and leadership positions in the Blue Bird Circle in Houston, P.E.O. chapters in Houston and Colorado, Bible Study Fellowship, and Community Bible Study. Jean and Walt were active members in their church choirs and in the Pathfinders Class at First Presbyterian Church in Colorado Springs.

She is survived by her husband, Walt; sister-in-law, Carole Scheldrup; brothers-in-law, C. Clyde Jones and Erhard Fertala; daughters, Susan Rozman (Jim) and Lynda Jean Wilbur (Jeff); son, Mark Heckelmann (Ty); eight grandchildren and their spouses; eight great-grandchildren; and six nieces and nephews and their families.

She is predeceased by her parents, her sister Margaret (Midge) Jones, her brother John Scheldrup, sister-in-law Dorothy Fertala and niece Karen Jones Prevette.

The family wishes to express their deep gratitude to Jean’s caregivers in the last years of her life, especially Lee Carpenter, and the nurses, physical therapy and staff at Laurel Manor in Colorado Springs.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a contribution in Jean’s name to the Mission Engagement activities at First Presbyterian Church, Colorado Springs, or their local P.E.O. chapter.
